

Non-profit independent research institution established in 1963.

JCER offers a variety of seminars, economic forecasts and research for Corporate Members

JCER'S MAIN ACTIVITIES

◆ Economic Forecasts

Economic research with particular emphasis on economic forecasting

- Short-term Forecast, Medium-term Forecast
- World Business Climate Index
- Potential Competitiveness Ranking
- JCER Monthly GDP and Super-short-term Forecast

◆ Research

Undertaking research projects on a contractual basis

- Policy Proposal Report : Redesigning of the Japanese Economy – Beyond the Earthquake Disaster – Tax and Pension Reform "Pension Reform: Take 'Energizing' Approach" (SEP/2011)
- Thinking Costs of Generating Electricity "FY2020 Nuclear Generating Cost Treble Pre-Accident Level--Huge Price Tag on Fukushima Accident Cleanup" (AUG/2011)
- China Research Report : "The Impact of the Rise of China on the World Order" (MAR/2011)
- Asia Research Report : "Asia's Huge Dragon and Elephant" (FEB/2011)
- Column : Tokyo Market View by Masataka Maeda

◆ Seminars

Holding seminars, lectures and symposia with the participation and/or assistance of leading scholars and economists in academia, business and government

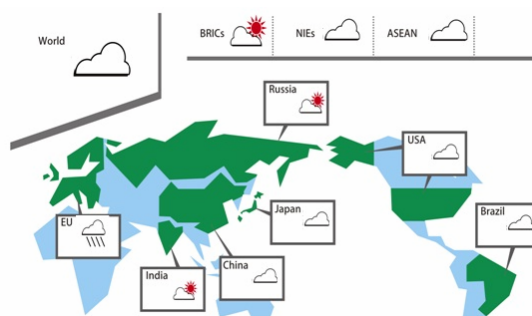

◆ Training Programs

Training young business persons in advanced economics and research

◆ Library

Providing a lending library of books, magazines, reports and statistical compilations of economic interest

The JCER World Business Climate Index (Weather Map in July 2011)

AEPR Special Seminar : "New Order of World Economy After the Global Financial Crisis"

JCER held the special seminar entitled "New Order of World Economy After the Global Financial Crisis" on 9th Apr, 2010 at Nikkei Kayabacho Hall.

INTERNATIONAL ACTIVITIES

- ◆ holding lectures and seminars by world-renowned economists and scholars for the public
- ◆ sponsoring international conferences
- ◆ conducting joint research with foreign research institutions on specific issues
- ◆ providing study facilities to a limited number of researchers from abroad

Asian Economic Policy Review (AEPR)

This English journal is published twice a year through Blackwell Publishing. The AEPR aims to become an intellectual voice on the current issues of international economics and economic policy based on comprehensive and in-depth analyses, with a primary focus on Asia.

Back Numbers

Issue No.		Title and Subject Summary
Vol.6 Issue 1	(2011 Jun.)	ASEAN Economy: Diversity, Disparities, and Dynamics
Vol.5 Issue 2	(2010 Dec.)	Asia Reshaping the Global Economic Order
Vol.5 Issue 1	(2010 Jun.)	The Environment and Climate Change
Vol.4 Issue 2	(2009 Dec.)	United States and East Asia
Vol.4 Issue 1	(2009 Jun.)	Demographic Change and Asian Dynamics
Vol.3 Issue 2	(2008 Dec.)	New India
Vol.3 Issue 1	(2008 Jun.)	Growing Inequalities?
Vol.2 Issue 2	(2007 Dec.)	Japan: Where To From Here?
Vol.2 Issue 1	(2007 Jun.)	Ten Years After the Asian Crisis: What Have We Learned or Not Learned
Vol.1 Issue 2	(2006 Dec.)	Regional Integration in East Asia
Vol.1 Issue 1	(2006 Jun.)	The Rise of China: Its Impacts on Asia and the World

Nikkei Asia Scholarship

Initiated by Nikkei (Nihon Keizai Shimbun) Inc. and JCER in 2006, this program invites promising researchers/economists from China, India and ASEAN countries to provide opportunities of studying in Japan. The maximum duration is one year.

< The list of the recipients from China of Nikkei Asia Scholarship program >

Name	Length of stay	Home organization and the title of research report
Deni Friawan (Indonesia)	Jan. 2010– Aug. 2010	Centre for Strategic and International Studies
		“Study of the Two Financial Crisis: their Impacts on Financial Integration in East Asia (tentative)”
Sukanya Natarajan (India)	Sep. 2009– Feb. 2010	Indian Council for Research on International Economic Relations(ICRIER)
		“Global Financial Crisis and its Impacts on Japan, India and China (tentative)”
Nguyen Cao Duc (Vietnam)	Oct. 2008– Aug. 2009	Vietnamese Academy of Social Sciences
		“Tax System Reforms in Japan: Lessons for Vietnam”
Wang Yongzhong (China)	Sep. 2008– Jun. 2009	Institute of World Economics and Politics, Chinese Academy of Social Sciences
		“Liberalization of Foreign Exchange Controls: Japan’s Experiences and Its Implications for China”