

Curriculum Vitae

April 1, 2012

NAME: Kazumasa Iwata

TITLES: President, Japan Center for Economic Research

- 1970 graduated from Department of Regional Studies, College of Arts and Sciences, The University of Tokyo and entered the Economic Planning Agency of the Japanese Government
- 1972-73 studied at Department of Economics and Kiel Institute for the World Economy, Kiel University (DAAD Scholarship)
- 1976-79 served as Administrator at the Monetary and Fiscal Policy Division, Department of Economics and Statistics, OECD (Paris)
- 1985 Visiting Fellow at the Australia-Japan Research Center, Australia National University
- 1986 Associate Professor, Department of Social and International Relations, College of Arts and Sciences, The University of Tokyo
- 1988 Visiting Professor at Alberta University and Visiting Fellow at Yale University
- 1991 Professor, Department of Social and International Relations, College of Arts and Sciences, The University of Tokyo
- 1996 Professor, Department of Advanced Social and International Studies, Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, The University of Tokyo
- 2001-03 Director General in charge of economic assessment and policy analysis, Cabinet Office
- 2003-08 Deputy Governor, Bank of Japan
- 2007 Emeritus Professor, The University of Tokyo
- 2008.6
- 2010.9 President, Economic and Social Research Institute, Cabinet Office
- 2008.10
- 2009.9 Member of the Council of Economic and Fiscal Policy
- 2010.10 President, Japan Center for Economic Research
- 2011.10 Member of the Council on National Strategy and Policy

“Economist Prize” in 1981 for the book titled "Banks' Behavior and Monetary Policy," jointly with Koichi Hamada