

CURRICULUM VITAE

Apr. 2011

RYUICHI USHIYAMA

Education

: Bachelor of Economics, Keio University, Tokyo, Japan, 1985

: Master of International Economics, Aoyama-gakuin University, Tokyo, Japan, 2008

Specialization:

Asian Politics and Economy

Job Experience:

1984 Joined NIKKEI (The Nihon Keizai Shimbun Newspaper)

Staff Writer of Business News Department

1987 Singapore correspondent

1992 Staff Writer of Capital News Department

1998 Hanoi Bureau Chief

2001 Staff writer of International News Department

2004 Senior Economist of Asia Research Department, Japan Center for Economic Research (JCER)

2009 Singapore Bureau Chief

2011 Senior Economist of International & Asian Department, JCER

Papers and Publications:

“Signs of Structural Change in Indian Trade”, JCER Staff Report, JCER, 2007

“Antidumping Measures by Europe and the U.S. against China are Problematic”, JCER Staff Report, JCER, 2007

“The Potential for Expansion of East Asian Production Networks: A Growing Role for India?”, Asia Research Report(2007), JCER, 2007

“Japan’s IC Exports to China Dominated by Low Priced Products”, JCER Staff Report, JCER 2006

“Intra-regional Policy Coordination Necessary through Trade Facilitation”, Asia Research Report (2006), JCER 2006

“Textile Trade Liberalization: Concerns about Widening Gaps among ASEAN Nations.”, JCER Staff Report, JCER, 2005

“The Future US-Vietnam Relationship after Conclusion of Trade Agreement”, Research Paper for Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan, 2003)

Books:

“Aging Asia” (Co-authoring), Nikkei Publishing Inc.: Tokyo, 2007, (in Japanese)

“Foreign Policy of Vietnam in 21st Century” (Co-authorship with Masaya Shiraishi, Daisuke Hosokawa and Ryo Ikebe, 2004, Akatsuki Inshokan)

“60 Chapters for Understanding of Modern Vietnam” (Co-authorship with Akio Imai and others, 2004, Akashi Shoten)